TRANSFERRED TO THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 7.—The Rev. Jacob E. Nicholson, the oldest Methodist Protestant minister in Maryland and father of Charles T. Nicholson of Salt Lake City, died here today.

For years he had been one of the foremost churchmen in this part of the country, and advancing years, though they forced him to retire from the pulpit, did not hold him back from debating important questions at the annual conference.

Grief over the death of his wife some years ago broke his spirit and hastened his death. In social service and Y. M. C. A. work he distinguished himself, and he was a staunch advocate of clean government in municipal politics. He was born near Seaford, Del., seventy years ago.

Salt Lake, Dec. 8.—Charles T. Nicholson, son of the Rev. Jacob E. Nicholson, has been a resident of Salt Lake City for six years, during which time he has been in the employ of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company as a machinist. Before coming to Salt Lake, Mr. Nicholson had been a foreman in the Rio Grande shops at Alamosa, Colo. Owing to the illness of his father, Mr. Nicholson left here for Baltimore last Monday.

Mrs. Nicholson was first advised of the death of her father-in-law last night by The Tribune.

RACING PILOT DEAD.

Brussels, Belgium, Dec. 8.—Camille Jeanneth, the Belgian automobile racing pilot, was accidentally killed in a forest near here today by the editors of a Brussels newspaper. Both were members of a hunting party on the game preserve of a wealthy friend.

VIRGIN WHITE PINE RAPIDLY DIMINISHING

Washington, D. C., Dec. 8.—Minnesota has the largest remaining stands of virgin white pine in the United States, according to a report just made public by the department of agriculture. These stands, however, the report declares, are diminishing rapidly and conservation measures are urgently needed to prevent their early disappearance.

More than eighty miles, the report continues, are rapidly converting the pine into logs for the planing mills.

AGED WOMAN KEEPS HER SHROUD READY

New York, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Although cheerfulness is the receipt by which Mrs. Hannah Koskoff says she has attained the age of 116 years, she constantly has a burial shroud folded beneath her bed. She made it herself fifty-five years ago when she thought her time to die had come.

To friends who congratulated her yesterday on her 116th birthday she proudly displayed the shroud and said that thinking of her need for it soon did not disturb her serenity one bit.

"Old Hannah" is in the home of the daughters of Israel. There are so many old people in the institution that a line of twenty-four inmates among whom there was none under 65 years of age, filed into her room yesterday to greet her. Some one suggested that each one in the party kiss her once for each year of her age, but when it was figured out that this meant 2,784 kisses the idea was abandoned.

DRESSMAKERS WOULD BAR PHOTOGRAPHERS

Paris, France, Dec. 8.—A trade defensive committee is being formed among Parisian dressmakers in support of their demand that photographers shall be banished from the Paris fashion courses, in order to prevent the creation of Paris fashions from being copied by foreign rivals.

It is pointed out that if foreigners get fashions made from photographs of the latest Paris fashions they will cease coming to Paris on shopping excursions. A strong protest already has been made to the police, but with the dressmakers are seeking some protective measures of their own.

WHY MEN DO NOT ATTEND CHURCH

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 8.—"Why do not more men attend church services?" This question was put by the Rev. R. Franklin Hart, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, here, in letters to 500 men of his congregation.

Summing up the answers received Dr. Hart said today it was apparent that there were three principal reasons why men, according to their own confessions, do not go to church. "The church welcomes the wealthy and is run by them, but the poor are not welcome," says one of the letters, which is supported by many others.

"Too much theoretical talk about Christianity and not enough practical Christianity," says another letter, which Dr. Hart assigns as reason No. two.

"Business and social duties take up a man's time to such an extent that on Sunday he wants to stay at home and read his papers and rest, and perhaps take a walk," says still another letter, which is given by the minister as the third reason.

BODY OF GAILLARD NOW AT ARLINGTON

Washington, D. C., Dec. 8.—The body of Lieutenant Colonel David Du Bose Gaillard, the army engineer whose genius made possible control of the slides through the Culebra cut in Panama canal, was laid to rest today in the slopes of the Arlington national cemetery, on the Potomac, after funeral services in St. John's Episcopal church.

HANS SCHMIDT IS PLACED ON TRIAL

New York, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Hans Schmidt, one time assistant rector of St. Joseph's church, was placed on trial today for the murder of Anna Ammuller, a crime which he committed after taking a walk. Schmidt, who had been washed ashore last September by the Hudson river.

His defense of insanity was made by his lawyers with his consent.
